

Name: _____

Food Chains

This worksheet goes with the food chains powerpoint lesson.

Go ahead and pause the lesson by pressing the  (back button) if you need more time to answer the worksheet questions.

Word Bank: incisors cattails mussels crayfish chipmunk Questions that use a word bank answer are marked with a *
--

1. What's an example of a producer (something that gets its energy from the sun)?
2. What are two examples of decomposers?
3. What do you eat if you're an omnivore?
4. *What are the sharp teeth that bears and other carnivores use to tear through meat called?
5. *What are two examples of foods that muskrats eat?
6. What is a beaver's favorite thing to eat?
7. What's a sign that coyotes are predators, not prey?
8. What happens to an ermine's fur when the seasons change?
9. What's a sign that rabbits are prey, not predators?

10. What is a porcupine's favorite thing to eat?

11. What do porcupines use to protect themselves from predators?

12. *What do foxes like to eat?

13. Why do bobcats have big, fluffy feet?

14. What do skunks use to protect themselves from predators?

Look at the example of a food web on the last slide for the next three questions.

15. What is a producer in this food web?

16. What is something that eats a frog in this food web?

17. What is something that a hawk eats in this food web?